noon of April 20 at 4 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Charles Lewis Slattery, rector of the church, and there will be a small reception afterward at the home of the bride's parents, 5 East 74th street.

Miss Rosalie Coe, a sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor and the other attendants will be the Misses Sarah Cheney, Helen Miller, Dorothy Weir, Gertrude Mah, Alice Pine and Eleanor Rodman Townsend. Edward Eddy Stowell will be the brother of the bride. The ushers will be Colles J. Coe, a brother of the bride; Elihu Root, Jr., Georges Roberts, Martin Keogh, Jr., Edward Wales Root and Sydney F. Henshaw of this city, William A. Perry of Greenville, Miss., and Richard H. Sherman of Utica, N. Y.

Miss Grace Marcella Prehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mason Prehn, will be married to Eugene Douth Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Douth Smith, in the Church of the Heavenly Rest on the afternoon of April 24. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Gotham.

The bride will have her sisters, the Misses Lillian and Constance Prehn, as her attendants and Rache McEwen Whitlock will act as best man. The ushers will be Herbert Wheeler, J. Roderick Buchanan, William M. Almy, Herman Le Roy Emmet, Bayard Tuckerman, Robert S. Potter, Dewees W. Dilworth and Guillermo S. Whitehouse.

Among the early June weddings will be that of Miss Sarah Delano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano of 39 East Thirty-sixth street, to Roland Livingston Redmond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Livingston of this city, and Tivoli, N. Y. It will be celebrated on June 5 at Steen Valtje, the country place of the bride's parents, in Barrytown, N. Y., where the wedding of Miss Jean Delano and Prof. George H. Edgell of Harvard took place last June.

Of interest to society was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Laura Cass Canfield, daughter of Mrs. Frank Gray Grasswood and the late Augustus Cass Canfield, to the Rev. William Lawrence Wood, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Wood of this city. Miss Canfield was introduced to society three years ago and with her sister, Miss Mary Cass Canfield, she has been prominently identified with the social life here, in Tuxedo and Newport. She lived abroad for some time with her mother, who was Miss Josephine Huntington before her marriage to Mr. Canfield. He died in Alton, N. C., in 1904.

Miss Wood was graduated from Columbia in 1908 and later studied at Balliol College, Oxford, England. He is a brother of Miss Mary Wood, Chalmers Wood, Jr., and Francis A. Wood.

No date has been mentioned for the wedding, but it is expected it will take place this spring.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Margaret West Colgate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Colby Colgate, to James Shepard Dennis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Dennis of Middletown, N. J. Miss Colgate, who was introduced to society two years ago, is a sister of the Misses Susan E. and Hope Colgate. Mr. Dennis was graduated from Princeton in 1910 and from the Harvard Law School in 1913. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip B. Jennings have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Outwater, to Edward Stevens of this city. Miss Outwater is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Outwater of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. Stevens is a son of the late George E. Stevens. He was graduated from Yale in 1912. The wedding will take place early next autumn.

Another engagement recently announced was that of Miss Alida Benson Carson, daughter of Mrs. Thomas C. Carson of Pittsburgh, Pa., to William Shepherd Davis of Mastic, L. I., and this city.

Major William Gottverm Ramsay and Mrs. Ramsay of Wilmington, Del., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Gouvenor Morris Ramsay, to Van Wyck Ferris of Garden City, L. I. Mrs. Ramsay passes a good deal of her time at

Mrs. Levi P. Morton will open her house at 988 Fifth avenue on April 22 for the benefit of the National Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild, when Miss Rose Zimmerman will give an illustrated talk on "My Gardens of Belgium, Spain and France." Miss Zimmerman, though an American, has passed much of her life in Europe and it has been devoted to the making and studying of gardens. She has planned and planted many noted gardens, and those in Belgium are as well known as any. Miss Zimmerman's gardens in Spain are quite as famous. Miss Jenny Larson, a young Swedish soprano, will sing some of the compositions of Miss Grace Hayland, who will accompany her.

Among the officers of the guild are Mrs. Morton, Mrs. James Roosevelt, Mrs. John Wood Stewart, Mrs. James Spencer, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Nicholas Murray Butler, Dr. Elgin R. L. Gould and Mrs. George E. Paul. Flowers, plants, fruits and fresh vegetables are sent by the guild to the sick poor in tenements and hospitals and flowers from social affairs of the winter are distributed.

Mrs. William Carroll Rafferty will give a theatre party for young people to-morrow night, afterward taking her guests for supper and dancing to the Waldorf Astoria. Mrs. Rafferty will give a dinner on April 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Davis and their young son, Edgar Stewart Davis, have been for the winter in Convent, N. J. They will pass the summer in Narragansett Pier, R. I., and will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Edgar, whose place in Southampton, L. I., has been leased to Mr. and Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks.

Mrs. Thornton N. Motley gave a chaperon on Wednesday afternoon at her home, 125 East Fifty-seventh street, for her young daughter, Miss Kathryn Thornton Motley, who is at home for the holidays. Mrs. Motley was assisted in receiving by Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Robert H. Sizer and Mrs. Horace Hovey. Mrs. Francis M. Gibson and Miss Estelle Doremus, guests in at the tea table. The guests were mainly the young school friends of Miss Motley and the young men at home from universities and boarding schools. Miss Motley will not be introduced to society before another year.

Mrs. William Carter Dickerman will give a dance at the Colony Club on Wednesday night for Miss Anne Jessup Woodin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Woodin, who was introduced to society early in the winter. Another dance at the club will be given on Friday night by Mrs. Charles MacVeagh for Miss Margaret La Farge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Grant La Farge.

Mrs. H. Winthrop Gray will pass the summer in Newport, where she has leased the Alton Potter villa in Rhode Island avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Fahys have gone to the Virginia Hot Springs to remain a month and shortly after returning will go to their country place in Locust Valley.

Mrs. Frank J. Sprague and Miss Harriet Ford will give a musicale and dance at the Colony Club on Thursday night.

Edward N. Teller, who left New York on February 15 for San Francisco via New Orleans and Los Angeles, has visited the various expositions of the Pacific coast. Mr. Teller, who is now in San Francisco, has visited all the leading expositions since that in Philadelphia in 1876. He is now an oceanographer and he finds the present exposition far ahead of any others he has seen. Mr. Teller will shortly return to his home, 11 Washington Square North.

The last of the dinner dances organized by Miss Annabella Olyphant will be given to-morrow night at Sherry's and there will be dances by professionals during dinner.
